International Law Enforcement Agency Retains Flynt Group

Kansas City, MO – March 19, 2008 – The Flynt Group, Inc., announced today that it was retained to provide security consulting services to a close U.S. Ally's International Law Enforcement Agency.

The work was in support of a project to design a secure, special purpose space that may ultimately be installed and used in various departments of the U.S. Ally's Government Ministries.

“Flynt Group competed against a field of several international firms for this project,” said Dr. Bill Flynt, CEO of the Flynt Group. “We are delighted to have been chosen to support this important work.”
